COLLECTION SCHARF-GERSTENBERG

PART OF TOWN Charlottenburg | RENTAL FEE upon request

THE LOCATION

In July, 2008 the collection Scharf-Gerstenberg was opened in Berlin. Magnificent works of Francisco de Goya, Salvador Dalí and Max Ernst are exhibited here. Not only art lovers love this museum as an elegant venue for unforgettable events.

For your event the inner courtyard, the Remise and the Sahurê hall with entrance hall are available to you. The inner courtyard with its 800 m² is suitable for standing receptions with up to 400 visitors. In the Remise 200 people can be accommodated standing or 180 in row seats. A festive dinner can be arranged here for 150 guests. In the Sahurê hall 60 people can celebrate at standing tables comfortably or 50 in chair rows. However, the consumption of food and drinks is not possible in this space.

The collection Scharf-Gerstenberg is situated in the eastern part of the Stülerbauten as well as in the connecting Marstall. The splendid complex of buildings lies directly in front of the Charlottenburger Schloss. Earlier the building served as barracks for the royal body guard.
